District Overview:

- Commercial businesses have been targeted in the North Stonestreet Avenue/Taft Court areas that appear to be related. Computer equipment has been taken in each event. See A2 & A3, below, for full details.

A1 Beat:

- No significant activity.

A2 Beat:

- For the third time this year, the United Health Care offices in the Unit block of Taft Court were burglarized between Wednesday 1/18 at 1800 and Thursday 1/19 at 0515 hours. A window was broken to access entry. A computer and two flat screen monitors were stolen. [RCPD]
- A residential burglary occurred in the 1200 block of Allison Drive on Friday 1/20 between 0630 and 1630 hours. A screen covering a window was entered. A television and credit cards were among the items stolen. [RCPD]
- Around 2100 hours on Thursday 1/19, a resident on Vandergrift Avenue heard a car alarm on Lemay Road and saw a subject getting out of the car. He then saw the suspect get into a white Dodge Stratus and drive over to Holland Drive. Upon arrival, units found nothing taken from the vehicle on Lemay, but the Dodge turned out to be stolen (from the 2100 block of Lewis during the same time frame) and was found in the 5900 block of Holland with a broken window and a punched ignition. [RCPD]

Suspect: B/M 6'0", 170, knit hat, dark jacket

- Between Wednesday 1/18 and Thursday 1/19, a total of six vehicles were broken into at two separate service stations in the 800 block of Rockville Pike. Stereos and tires were the target. Windows were either pried (on convertible models) or broken to gain entry.

[RCPD]

(Amoco) 818 Rockville Pike	97 Nissan	nothing taken
	96 Geo SUV	cassette player, 1 tire & rim
	92 Lincoln	1 tire & rim
(Texaco) 890 Rockville Pike	86 BMW	nothing taken
	91 Mercury	CD player
	00 Ford	CD player

A3 Beat:

- Two commercial burglaries are likely related to another in A2, these two offices are most likely related to the offices in the Unit block of Taft Court.
  - On Tuesday 1/17 between 0445 and 0502 hours, a window was discovered broken by county security at NIH offices at 301 North Stonestreet Avenue. Computer equipment was stolen. [RCPD]
  - Two nights later, on Thursday 1/19 at 0230 hours, a window was broken at History Associates, located at 300 North Stonestreet Avenue. The suspect was probably scared off when the alarm sounded, as no known entry was made.
- Tools and lawn care equipment were stolen from a backyard shed in the 900 block of North Stonestreet Avenue between Wednesday 1/18 at 1800 and Thursday 1/19 at 0800 hours. [RCPD]
- The front door glass was smashed at Peter's Grill, 519 East Gude Drive, on Sunday 1/22 just after midnight. The register containing cash and a pack of cigarettes were stolen.
- A burglary occurred at Rockville Central Autobody Inc. between Friday 1/20 at 1830 and Saturday, 1/21 at 0815 hours. A window was broken to gain entry and wires were pulled out of power boxes at two different locations. Once inside, computer equipment was stolen as well as the keys to a vehicle parked outside. [RCPD]
Stolen Vehicle: 2005 Toyota Camry 4-door, silver
- Two adjoining businesses on Baltimore Road were burglarized on Monday 1/23 between 0100 and 0130 hours. A witness saw three B/M's breaking into the Café Masala (705) and the Asia Café (703) by smashing the glass. No entry was made to the Asia Café, but it appears the cash register was stolen from the Café Masala. The suspects were seen fleeing on foot. [RCPD]

A4 Beat:

- No significant activity.

B1 Beat:

- The Classic Beer & Wine, 891 Rockville Pike, was burglarized on Friday 1/20 between 0400 and 0430 hours. A window was smashed, cash was stolen.

- A residential burglary occurred in the Unit block of Watchwater Way on Friday 1/20 between 1810 and 2122 hours. The door glass was smashed to gain entry. Electronics, video games, and two Samurai swords were stolen from the residence.

B2 Beat:

- No significant activity.

B3 Beat:

- No significant activity.

B4 Beat:

- A residential garage burglary was witnessed in the 13900 block of Esworthy Road on Wednesday 1/18 about 0840 hours. The suspect was dropped off at the end of the victim's driveway, then proceeded to walk up and opened the unlocked garage door. After obtaining a power saw and leaf blower, the suspect was chased by the witness to the end of the driveway, then disappeared.

Suspect: H/M 20-25 years, 5'8", red shirt with blue writing

Suspect Vehicle: white pickup truck (NFD)
